RE: Barton Baskette

3:12-CR-00022-001

You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) you use.

To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches will be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

You must not utilize or maintain any memberships or accounts of any social networking website or websites that allow minor children membership, a profile, an account, or webpage without approval of the probation office. This includes websites that explicitly prohibit access or use by sex offenders.

CAUSE

Mr. Baskette's term of supervision commenced on January 12, 2023, in the Eastern District of Arkansas. Based on Mr. Baskette's conviction, the Eastern District of Arkansas is requesting additional special conditions of supervision to assist with protecting the community and further enhance the supervision of Mr. Baskette. The acceptance of supervision by the Eastern District of Arkansas is conditional on the proposed modification.

Mr. Baskette was provided with a Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervision (Prob 49) and agreed to the proposed modification.

Assistant United States Attorney Frank M. Dale, Jr. was contacted, and he does not object to the proposed modification.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER OF COURT:

The conditions of supervision are hereby modified to include the following additional special conditions:

You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) you use.

To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches will be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

You must not utilize or maintain any memberships or accounts of any social networking website or websites that allow minor children membership, a profile, an account, or webpage without approval of the probation office. This includes websites that explicitly prohibit access or use by sex offenders.

So ordered.

ENTER.
